

ADDRESSING BEHAVIORS THAT CHALLENGE IN THE CLASSROOM WORKSHOP

Date: September 20th, 2024
Time: 9AM-4PM
Location: Desert Willow Conference Center

What to Do When Behavior Challenges Us

Are there some behaviors that really push your buttons? Come explore what influences how we view children's behaviors and which ones we identify as challenging. Learn how a child's developmental process influences behavior changes and what to expect based on this process. Explore strategies and tips for responding to a child's behavior that supports their learning and development along with our relationship with them and their relationships within their family.

Training will include:

- ✓ Discovering influences on how we view children's behavior
- ✓ Impact of the child's developmental process on their behavior
- ✓ Strategies for engaging families in addressing behavior that challenges

Only Limited Seats Available!

Register Now!

azheadstart.org

Brazelton Trainers:
Jayne Singer, PhD, IECMH-E
M. Dewana Thompson, PhD

Audience:

Coaches, disabilities manager, mental health consultants, program manager, directors, family advocates, teachers.

Presented by:

