

Early Head Start is Enrolling Children

AGES 0-3 WHO HAVE AN INDIVIDUALIZED FAMILY SERVICE PLAN (IFSP)

What can families expect from Early Head Start?

- Direct and individualized support of identified outcomes during home visits
- Ongoing assessments to monitor development/progress
- Staff works with early intervention and education providers
- Inclusion Specialists review each child's IFSP with staff and attend AzEIP, DDD, & developmental preschool meetings with families

- Hearing & vision screenings for children
- Health & nutrition assessments and consultations
- Developmental & social-emotional screenings for children
- Mental health consultations and referrals
- Family & educational goal setting

- Individualized community resources and activities for families
- Opportunities for parents to volunteer
- School readiness support for parents

Early Head Start Program Performance Standards require 10 percent of funded enrollment be filled by children eligible for services under IDEA (who also meet Early Head Start eligibility).
